UPCOMING GAMES & PITCHING PROBABLES

Wed., April 24	at Harrisburg	Noon	RHP Scooter Hightower (0-2, 5.02) vs. RHP Sterling Sharp (2-1, 3.71)
Thurs., April 25	OFF DAY
Fri., April 26	Richmond	6 p.m.	TBD vs. RHP James Marvel (2-1, 1.99)
Sat., April 27	Richmond	4 p.m.	TBD vs. RHP Pedro Vasquez (1-0, 1.59)

YESTERDAY: Dario Agrazal held Harrisburg off the scoreboard over seven innings and with a career-high-tying eight strikeouts. In the eighth, Senators outfielder Chuck Taylor greeted Curve reliever Vicente Campos with a 10-pitch at bat that resulted in a solo homer to right for the game's only run. Bligh Madris notched two hits for Altoona while Logan Hill recorded Altoona's lone extra-base hit, a double in the seventh.

TONIGHT: The 21st season of Altoona Curve Baseball continues as the Curve play the second contest of a three-game set against the Harrisburg Senators, Double-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals.

THE CURVE: After a franchise record-matching 5-0 start to the season, the Curve have lost eight of their last 12. Over the last nine games, Altoona has been outscored 34-17 while hitting .213 (54/254). Entering 2019, the Curve own the Eastern League's longest active streak for reaching the postseason while their four straight playoff appearances are tied for a franchise record (2003-06). Over that four-year period, the Curve have the best record (302-258) among Western Division teams while the only teams in the league with better records are Trenton (329-235) and Reading (305-254).

THE SENATORS: Harrisburg owns the best record in Minor League Baseball and have won their last six games, including a three-game sweep in Altoona last week and Monday's series opener. Harrisburg's pitching staff has the lowest team ERA at 2.14 and batting average against at .191. Offensively, they lead the circuit with 22 homers while ranking second with a .247 team average and 72 runs scored. Despite those top marks, the Senators' offense is 11th in the E.L. with a .200 batting average with runners in scoring position. Harrisburg is managed by Matt LeCroy, one of four returning managers in the league from 2018 (Altoona's Michael Ryan, Hartford's Warren Schaeffer and Richmond's Willie Harris). The Senators currently carry seven of the Nationals' Top 30 prospects, according to MLB.com: INF Luis Garcia (No. 3), RHP Wil Crowe (No. 5), RHP Sterling Sharp (No. 9), RHP James Bourque (No. 18), C Tres Barrera (No. 21), LHP Taylor Guilbeau (No. 24) and LHP Ben Braymer (No. 25). Garcia is also ranked by MLB.com as baseball's No. 73 overall prospect.

FOR ALTOONA: Left-hander Cam Vieaux will make his fourth start of the season and second straight against Harrisburg. The 25-year-old from Michigan has four previous starts against Harrisburg and is 2-2 with a 4.13 ERA (11 ER/24 IP). He allowed seven runs in six innings in his lone start on City Island on July 31, 2018. Vieaux made 15 starts with the Curve in 2018 and finished tied for the team lead with nine winning decisions to be named Altoona Curve Pitcher of the Year. At PNG Field in 2018, Vieaux went 7-1 in eight starts with a 2.47 ERA compared to a 5.15 ERA and a 2-4 record over seven starts on the road. The Pirates drafted Vieaux in the sixth round in 2016 out of Michigan State...For more on Vieaux, see page two.

FOR HARRISBURG: Right-hander Erick Fedde makes his fourth start of the season for Harrisburg and his second straight against the Curve. In his last start, Fedde allowed one unearned run over seven innings last Tuesday at PNG Field in Altoona and picked up his second straight winning decision. On April 11, he pitched six innings of a combined no-hitter for the first no-no of the minor league season. Fedde has spent parts of the last four seasons with Harrisburg, going a combined 7-5 with a 3.18 ERA across 26 Double-A outings. In five career appearances against Altoona, Fedde is 3-0 with a 0.44 ERA (1 ER/20.2 IP). The Las Vegas native was the 18th overall pick by the Nationals in the 2014 draft and made his Major League debut with Washington on July 30, 2017 against Colorado. He split the 2018 season between Triple-A Syracuse and Washington and owns a MLB career mark of 2-5 with a 6.44 ERA.

HEROES OF ZEROES: Over the Curve's last three games, starting pitchers James Marvel, Pedro Vasquez and Dario Agrazal have teamed up to toss 20 scoreless innings. The trio has held hitters to a .077 average (5/65), walked two and struck out 15.

CURVE COMMAND: Altoona's pitching staff has leaned on pinpoint control at the start of the season. With 35 walks among the group, Curve pitchers have issued the fewest free passes in all of Minor League Baseball. The starting rotation has limited their walks to 12 on the campaign, which is lowest total at Double-A through 93.2 innings and the second-fewest in the minors behind Dunedin's (A-Adv. Blue Jays) starting staff with 11 walks in 81.2 innings.

SITUATIONAL SLUMP: As a team with runners in scoring position, the Curve hit .321 in the clutch over the first seven games of the season before stumbling to a .156 (10/64) mark over their previous 10 games. Altoona's offense has bounced into a league-high 15 double plays and has struck out at the third-highest rate among teams in the league. The Curve offense has tallied double-digit strikeouts in nine of the first 17 games of the year.

STEPHEN UP: Shortstop Stephen Alemais is beginning to swing one of the best bats atop the Curve lineup. The shortstop from the Bronx has hit safely in six of his last eight games with three multi-hit performances. Over the recent stretch, Baseball America's No. 26 Pirates prospect is hitting .333 average (9/30). Alemais hit .310 through his first 15 games in 2018 and would have finished last season with a .298 average if not for an 0-for-26 slide that he experienced from May 5-18.

HILLS AND VALLEYS: Outfielder Logan Hill has experienced sharp ups and downs through the campaign's first two weeks. Hill started the season 0-for-6 over his first games then went 9-for-his-next-15 in his next four with three doubles, one homer and four RBIs to boost his average to .429. Over his last 11 games, the Pensacola, Fla. native has gone 5-for-36 with three doubles and three RBIs as his average has dipped to .246. Hill stands tied for fifth in the Eastern League with six doubles and 10th with seven extra-base hits.

BLIGH GUY: Outfielder Bligh Madris broke out of a 1-for-14 funk with a 2-for-4 showing on Monday. Madris moves into a tie for fifth in the Eastern League with a team-high 18 hits on the season and is tied for 11th with four doubles.

RYAN'S REIGN: Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan is back for his third season as Curve manager in 2019 and joins elite company with Dale Sveum (2001-03) and Tim Lincecum (2006-08) as the only managers to hold the post for three seasons. During his time as the Altoona skipper, the Curve have gone 160-135 under Ryan's direction and won back-to-back Western Division titles for the first time in club history. Altoona's next victory will be the team's 161st with Ryan at the helm and he would match Tony Beasley (2003-05) for the third-most managerial victories in club history. Sveum and Lincecum each won 213 games with the Curve, which is the franchise record for managerial wins.

PROSPECT WATCH: The Curve roster features four of Baseball America's Top 30 Pirates prospects: Jared Oliva (No. 19), Stephen Alemais (No. 26), Gage Hinsz (No. 28) and Dario Agrazal (No. 29). Three of those players are also featured on MLB.com's Top 30 Pirates prospects list: Oliva (No. 12), Alemais (No. 26) and Agrazal (No. 29). Oliva was also ranked by B.A. as the "Best Defensive Outfielder" in Pittsburgh's system.

ALTOONA CURVE COACHING STAFF

Michael Ryan Manager (3rd Season)	Joel Hanrahan Pitching Coach	Jon Nunnally Hitting Coach	Salvador Paniagua Coach	Justin Ahrens Athletic Trainer	Joe Schlesinger Strength Coach
Career Record: 440-404 w/ ALT: 160-135	1st season 3rd overall	1st season 12th overall	1st season 3rd overall	3rd season 10th overall	3rd season 7th overall
Ryan returns for his third season in Altoona after guiding the Curve to back-to-back Western Division championships. In his first season, the Curve captured the 2017 Eastern League title. He also managed the Western Division All-Stars in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic. Ryan started his coaching career as a coach for the Curve in 2012. He is in his seventh season as a manager in the Pirates organization, leading the Bradenton Marauders from 2015-16 and the West Virginia Power from 2014-15. He steered Bradenton to a 70-66 record in 2016 and won the Florida State League championship. Ryan played 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors, after he was a fifth-round draft choice by the Minnesota Twins in 1996.	Hanrahan joins the Curve in 2019 for his third season as a pitching coach in the Pittsburgh minor league system. He started his coaching career with the Bristol Pirates in 2017 and most recently oversaw pitchers for the West Virginia Power last year. Hanrahan was a two-time National League All-Star with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2011 and 2012 while he served as the team's closer. He was the first Buc's closer to notch 40 saves in a single season and recorded 82 saves, fifth all-time, during four seasons in Pittsburgh. A second-round pick by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2000, he played 14 totals seasons and seven years as a right-handed reliever in the majors.	Nunnally comes to the Curve for his first year in the Pirates organization and 12th season as a coach in professional baseball. During the 2010-11 seasons, he was the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians under manager Manny Acta. Nunnally spent the last two seasons as the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for the Los Angeles Angels. He has served as a hitting coach in the Indians, Toronto Blue Jays and Boston Red Sox developmental systems with Eastern League stops in New Hampshire (2012, 14) and Portland (2016). As a player, Nunnally was drafted by Cleveland in the third round in 1992 and played 15 seasons. He also played six major league seasons.	Paniagua joins the Curve for his third season as a coach in the Pirates organization. He started his coaching career in 2017 with the Bristol Pirates and was the hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League affiliate last year. He played for 13 years as an international signee out of the Dominican Republic. Paniagua spent parts of six seasons as a member of the Boston Red Sox and New York Mets minor league systems that included Eastern League experience with Portland (2007) and Binghamton (2008-09). He also spent six seasons (2011-16) with the independent York Revolution and is the longest-tenured position player in franchise history.	In his eighth season as a member of the Pittsburgh organization, Ahrens returns to Altoona for a third season in 2019. In 2018, Ahrens was the trainer for the Eastern League All-Star Classic. He spent two years in Bradenton from 2015-16, where he was named Florida State League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2016. He spent each the last six seasons on the same staff as manager Michael Ryan. Ahrens received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Carroll University in 2011, and a master's degree in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific University in 2016.	Schlesinger returns to the Curve for his third season, after making stops at Jamestown, West Virginia and Bradenton within the Pittsburgh system. In 2018, Ahrens was the trainer for the Western Division for the Eastern League All-Star Classic. Prior to joining the Pirates, he served as the strength and conditioning graduate assistant at Duquesne University from 2012-2014. Schlesinger graduated from Toledo with a degree in exercise science in 2011 and completed his master's degree of science in sports leadership at Duquesne in 2014.
