WEDNESDAY: The Curve bats erupted for 10 runs on 17 hits in the series finale at Harrisburg while Altoona side-stepped a series sweep with a 10-5 win over the Senators. With runs in six different innings, the Curve jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first inning and tacked on single scores in the following four frames. Seven players recorded multiple hits, led by three hits apiece from Bligh Madris and Jerrick Suiter.

TONIGHT: The 21st season of Altoona Curve Baseball continues as the Curve begin a three-game series against the Richmond Flying Squirrels, Double-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants. In Richmond last weekend, the Curve threw back-to-back one-hit shutouts against the Flying Squirrels to sweep a double-header and claim the series victory.

THE CURVE: After a franchise record-matching 5-0 start to the season, the Curve have won three of their last five despite 10 losses in their last 14 games. Altoona's pitching staff has held Eastern League hitters to a .156 (22/141) batting average against with a 2.25 ERA through the last trip through the rotation while the team is batting .255 (40/157) over the last five games. Entering 2019, the Curve own the Eastern League's longest active streak for reaching the postseason while their four straight playoff appearances are tied for a franchise record (2003-06). Over that four-year period, the Curve have the best record (302-258) among Western Division teams while the only teams in the league with better records are Trenton (329-235) and Reading (305-254).

THE FLYING SQUIRRELS: Richmond has stumbled to five straight losses and have dropped seven of their last eight games. After losing the last two games of last weekend's series against Altoona, the Flying Squirrels were swept in three games by Reading at The Diamond. Over their five-game losing streak, Richmond has scored just five runs while batting .124 (17/137) while they have been outscored 38-19 in their last eight games with a .181 (42/232) mark at the plate. Richmond's team batting average is .208, ranked for 11th in the league, while the Flying Squirrels' pitching staff ranks third on the circuit with a 2.98 ERA.

FOR ALTOONA: Right-hander James Marvel makes his fifth start of the season and his second of the year against Richmond. In his previous start, Marvel tossed a complete-game, one-hit shutout to break a six-game losing streak for the Curve and also recorded an RBI in the 2-0 victory. Marvel earned Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors on Monday after he allowed one run over 11 innings pitched for the week of April 15-21. In two career starts against Richmond, Marvel has gone the distance in each outing and both starts with a 1.29 ERA (2 ER/14 IP). Born in San Francisco, Marvel was drafted by the Pirates in the 36th round in 2015 out of Duke University. For more on Marvel, see page two.

FOR RICHMOND: Left-hander Garrett Williams receives the starting nod on Friday, his third start of the season. In his most recent start, Williams was charged with two runs over four innings in the first game on Saturday's double-header against Altoona and received the losing decision. Williams is in his second season with Richmond and went 3-9 with a 6.06 ERA in 33 outings, including 15 starts, during the 2018 season. In four career outings against the Curve, Williams owns a record of 0-2 with a 5.02 ERA (8 ER/14.1 IP). The Lubbock, Texas native allowed five runs in 4.1 innings combined over two starts with Richmond at PNG Field in 2018. The southpaw was the Giants' seventh-round pick in 2016 out of Oklahoma State and is regarded as San Francisco's No. 20 prospect by MLB.com.

CURVE COMMAND: Altoona pitchers have issued 37 walks through 18 games, the fewest free passes in all of Minor League Baseball. The starting rotation has limited their walks to 14 on the campaign, which is lowest total at Double-A through 101.2 innings and the second-best in the minors behind starting pitchers for Dunedin (A-Adv. Blue Jays) with 13 walks in 97.2 innings.

SLUMP BUSTER: Wednesday's 10-5 win in Harrisburg set season highs for runs (10) and hits (17). The club also went 6-for-21 with runners in scoring position. Prior to the 10-run outburst, the Curve scored just 11 runs on the road trip and we're hitting .220 overall. With runners in scoring position, Altoona had been hitting .143 (10/70) over their previous 11 games and were 4-for-34 in those clutch spots during the first five games of the trip.

BLIGH GUY: Outfielder Bligh Madris has broke out of a 1-for-14 funk with three consecutive multi-hit games in the previous series with Harrisburg. Over his last three games, Madris is 7-for-15 (.467) with two doubles and three RBIs. The Las Vegas native has hit safely in four of his last five and has recovered his average to .307 after a short slump to .267. With a team-high 23 hits, Madris ranks second in the Eastern League in that category while his six doubles are ninth-most in the league.

BOUNTY HUNTER: Third baseman Hunter Owen has gone hitless in four of his last 10 games but has managed to hit .324 (11/34) over that period with four multi-hit games. He sits fourth on the E.L. leaderboard with four homers and 13 RBIs while his .578 slugging percentage is ranked sixth. The Indiana native is tied for fifth in the league with nine extra-base hits and his 11 runs scored are tied for seventh. Owen finished second in the Pirates organization with 18 homers during the 2018 season while playing in the pitcher-friendly Florida State League for A-Adv. Bradenton.

SUIT UP: First baseman Jerrick Suiter enjoyed a fruitful day at the plate on Wednesday by going 3-for-4 with a double and two RBIs. After starting the season with a .367 average over the first eight games of the year, Suiter went 3-for-his-next-24 (.125) over his previous nine games until Wednesday's outburst. The Pirates 26th round pick in 2014 was Altoona's Unsung Hero during the 2017 championship season when he batted .285 through 100 regular-season games.

During his time as the Altoona skipper, the Curve have gone 161-136 under Ryan's direction and won back-to-back Western Division titles for the first time in club history. Altoona's next victory will be the team's 162nd with Ryan at the helm and he would move ahead of Tony Beasley (2003-05) for the third-most managerial victories in club history. He also managed the Western Division All-Stars in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic. Ryan started his coaching career as a coach for the Curve in 2012. He is in his seventh season as a manager in the Pirates organization, leading the Bradenton Marauders from 2015-16 and the West Virginia Power from 2014-15. He steered Bradenton to a 70-66 record in 2016 and won the Florida State League championship. Ryan played 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors, after he was a fifth-round draft choice by the Minnesota Twins in 1996.	Hanrahan joins the Curve in 2019 for his third season as a pitching coach in the Pittsburgh minor league system. He started his coaching career with the Bristol Pirates in 2017 and most recently oversaw pitchers for the West Virginia Power last year. Hanrahan was a two-time National League All-Star with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2011 and 2012 while he served as the team's closer. He was the first Bucs closer to notch 40 saves in a single season and recorded 82 saves, fifth all-time, during four seasons in Pittsburgh. A second-round pick by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2000, he played 14 totals seasons and seven years as a right-handed reliever in the majors.	Nunnally comes to the Curve for his first year in the Pirates organization and 12th season as a coach in professional baseball. During the 2010-11 seasons, he was the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians under manager Manny Acta. Nunnally spent the last two seasons as the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for the Los Angeles Angels. He has served as a hitting coach in the Indians, Toronto Blue Jays and Boston Red Sox developmental systems with Eastern League stops in New Hampshire (2012, 14) and Portland (2016). As a player, Nunnally was drafted by Cleveland in the third round in 1992 and played 15 seasons. He also played six major league seasons.	Paniagua joins the Curve for his third season as a coach in the Pirates organization. He started his coaching career in 2017 with the Bristol Pirates and was the hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League affiliate last year. He played for 13 years as an international signee out of the Dominican Republic. Paniagua spent parts of six seasons as a member of the Boston Red Sox and New York Mets minor league systems that included Eastern League experience with Portland (2007) and Binghamton (2008-09). He also spent six seasons (2011-16) with the independent York Revolution and is the longest-tenured position player in franchise history.	In his eighth season as a member of the Pittsburgh organization, Ahrens returns to Altoona for a third season in 2019. In 2018, Ahrens was the trainer for the Western Division for the Eastern League All-Star Classic. He spent two years in Bradenton from 2015-16, where he was named Florida State League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2016. He spent each the last six seasons on the same staff as manager Michael Ryan. Ahrens received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Carroll University in 2011, and a master's degree in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific University in 2016.	Schlesinger returns to the Curve for his third season, after making stops at Jamestown, West Virginia and Bradenton within the Pittsburgh system.
