UPCOMING GAMES & PITCHING PROBABLES

Sun., April 28	Richmond	2 p.m.	RHP Logan Webb (1-2, 2.14) vs. RHP Yeudy Garcia (0-0, 0.82)
Mon., April 29	Erie	6 p.m.	RHP Casey Mize (AA Debut) vs. LHP Cam Vieaux (0-1, 2.49)
Tues., April 30	Erie	6 p.m.	RHP Matt Manning (2-0, 1.59) vs. RHP Scooter Hightower (0-1, 5.71)
Wed., May 1	Erie	10:30 a.m.	RHP Alex Faedo (1-1, 3.52) vs. RHP James Marvel (3-1, 1.52)

YESTERDAY: James Marvel threw seven scoreless innings for the second start in a row against Richmond while the Curve bats kept swinging to 7-0 win. Logan Hill knocked in two runs on sacrifice flies, in the first and sixth innings. Hunter Owen clubbed a two-run double in the third to break the game open as Altoona jumped out to a 4-0 lead. Mitchell Tolman tripled in Owen then doubled and scored in the fifth.

TONIGHT: The 21st season of Altoona Curve Baseball continues as the Curve play the second contest of a three-game series against the Richmond Flying Squirrels, Double-A affiliate of the San Francisco Giants. In Richmond last weekend, the Curve threw back-to-back one-hit shutouts against the Flying Squirrels to sweep a double-header and claim the series victory.

THE CURVE: Altoona's club has won four of their last six games to kick a slide of eight losses in the previous nine contests. Over the last six games, Altoona's pitching staff has held Eastern League hitters to a .152 (26/171) batting average against with a 1.84 ERA (10 ER/49 IP) while the offense is batting .273 (52/191) over that period. Entering 2019, the Curve own the Eastern League's longest active streak for reaching the postseason while their four straight playoff appearances are tied for a franchise record (2003-06). Over that four-year period, the Curve have the best record (302-258) among Western Division teams while the only teams in the league with better records are Trenton (329-235) and Reading (305-254).

THE FLYING SQUIRRELS: Richmond has stumbled to six straight losses and have dropped eight of their last nine games. Over their five-game losing streak, Richmond has scored just five runs and have been shut out by the Curve three times. The club is hitting .126 (21/167) over the last six games while they have been outscored 45-19 in their last nine with a .176 (46/262) mark at the plate. Richmond's team batting average is .204, ranked 11th in the league, while the Flying Squirrels' pitching staff ranks fifth on the circuit with a 3.18 ERA.

FOR ALTOONA: Right-handed pitcher Pedro Vasquez will make his fifth outing of the season and his fourth start of the campaign. In his last start, Vasquez spun six one-hit, scoreless innings with five strikeouts and did not pick up a decision as the Curve scored the only run of the game in the eighth inning. His last start against Richmond was his only career appearance against the Flying Squirrels. The right-hander from Santo Domingo was originally signed by the Mariners as an international free agent and was traded to the Pirates organization in September 2016....For more on Vasquez, see page two.

FOR RICHMOND: Right-hander Alfred Gutierrez takes the hill for his fourth start of the year. The 23-year-old pitched 3.2 scoreless innings on Monday in a no-decision against Reading. He has not pitched beyond the fourth inning through his three starts of the year with a season-high pitch count of 72 tosses in his last outing. Gutierrez spent the first seven seasons of his professional career in the Tigers organization before signing a minor league free agent deal with the Giants prior to the 2019 season. He was a Florida State League All-Star with A-Adv. Lakeland in 2018 and made seven starts with Double-A Erie before topping at Triple-A Toledo. With the SeaWolves, Gutierrez made two starts against Altoona, including August 11 at PNG Field, and went 0-2 with a 8.71 ERA (10 ER/10.1 IP).

CURVE COMMAND: Altoona pitchers have issued 41 walks through 20 games, the fewest free passes in all of Minor League Baseball. The starting rotation has limited their walks to 16 on the campaign, which is tied with Erie for the lowest total at Double-A through 108.2 innings and the second-best in the minors behind starting pitchers for Dunedin (A-Adv. Blue Jays) with 15 walks in 102.2 innings.

SLUMP BUSTERS: The Curve offense has found it's rhythm with 17 runs on 29 hits over the last two games and have gone 10-for-34 with men in scoring position. Prior to the 17-run outburst over the last two games, the Curve were limited to 14 runs over their previous eight games and were batting .207 (49/237) as a team in addition to .106 (5/47) with runners in scoring position

BLIGH GUY: Outfielder Bligh Madris has broke out of a 1-for-14 funk with four consecutive multi-hit games, including back-to-back three-hit games. Over his last three games, Madris is 10-for-20 (.500) with two doubles and three RBIs. The Las Vegas native has hit safely in five of his last six and has climbed into 10th in the Eastern League batting race at a .325 average and leads the league with 26 hits.

BOUNTY HUNTER: Third baseman Hunter Owen has gone hitless in four of his last 11 games but has managed to hit .342 (13/38) over that period with five multi-hit games. He sits fourth on the E.L. leaderboard with four homers and 16 RBIs while his .588 slugging percentage is ranked sixth. The Indiana native is tied for fourth in the league with 10 extra-base hits, ranks tied for fifth with 21 hits and his 12 runs scored are tied for fourth. Owen finished second in the Pirates organization with 18 homers during the 2018 season while playing in the pitcher-friendly Florida State League for A-Adv. Bradenton.

TOLLY TIME: Second baseman Mitchell Tolman has hit safely in five of his last six games. During that stretch, he is batting .333 (6/18) and has driven in 2 RBI along with one double, one triple and has drawn two walks.

RYAN'S REIGN: Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan is back for his third season as Curve manager in 2019 and joins elite company with Dale Sveum (2001-03) and Tim Leiper (2006-08) as the only managers to hold the post for three seasons. During his time as the Altoona skipper, the Curve have gone 162-136 under Ryan's direction and won back-to-back Western Division titles for the first time in club history. Friday's win was Ryan's 162nd as Curve manager and moved him ahead of Tony Beasley (2003-05) for the third-most managerial victories in club history. Sveum and Leiper share the franchise record with 213 wins as Curve manager.

PROSPECT WATCH: The Curve roster features four of Baseball America's Top 30 Pirates prospects: Jared Oliva (No. 19), Stephen Alemais (No. 26), Gage Hinsz (No. 28) and Dario Agrazal (No. 29). Three of those players are also featured on MLB.com's Top 30 Pirates prospects list: Oliva (No. 12), Alemais (No. 26) and Agrazal (No. 29). Oliva was also ranked by B.A. as the "Best Defensive Outfielder" in Pittsburgh's system.

ALTOONA CURVE COACHING STAFF

Michael Ryan Manager (3rd Season)	Joel Hanrahan Pitching Coach	Jon Nunnally Hitting Coach	Salvador Paniagua Coach	Justin Ahrens Athletic Trainer	Joe Schlesinger Strength Coach
Career Record: 442-405 w/ ALT: 162-136	1st season 3rd overall	1st season 12th overall	1st season 3rd overall	3rd season 10th overall	3rd season 7th overall
Ryan returns for his third season in Altoona after guiding the Curve to back-to-back Western Division championships. In his first season, the Curve captured the 2017 Eastern League title. He also managed the Western Division All-Stars in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic. Ryan started his coaching career as a coach for the Curve in 2012. He is in his seventh season as a manager in the Pirates organization, leading the Bradenton Marauders from 2015-16 and the West Virginia Power from 2014-15. He steered Bradenton to a 70-66 record in 2016 and won the Florida State League championship. Ryan played 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors, after he was a fifth-round draft choice by the Minnesota Twins in 1996.	Hanrahan joins the Curve in 2019 for his third season as a pitching coach in the Pittsburgh minor league system. He started his coaching career with the Bristol Pirates in 2017 and most recently oversaw pitchers for the West Virginia Power last year. Hanrahan was a two-time National League All-Star with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2011 and 2012 while he served as the team's closer. He was the first Bucs closer to notch 40 saves in a single season and recorded 82 saves, fifth all-time, during four seasons in Pittsburgh. A second-round pick by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2000, he played 14 totals seasons and seven years as a right-handed reliever in the majors.	Nunnally comes to the Curve for his first year in the Pirates organization and 12th season as a coach in professional baseball. During the 2010-11 seasons, he was the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians under manager Manny Acta. Nunnally spent the last two seasons as the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for the Los Angeles Angels. He has served as a hitting coach in the Indians, Toronto Blue Jays and Boston Red Sox developmental systems with Eastern League stops in New Hampshire (2012, 14) and Portland (2016). As a player, Nunnally was drafted by Cleveland in the third round in 1992 and played 15 seasons. He also played six major league seasons.	Paniagua joins the Curve for his third season as a coach in the Pirates organization. He started his coaching career in 2017 with the Bristol Pirates and was the hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League affiliate last year. He played for 13 years as an international signee out of the Dominican Republic. Paniagua spent parts of six seasons as a member of the Boston Red Sox and New York Mets minor league systems that included Eastern League experience with Portland (2007) and Binghamton (2008-09). He also spent six seasons (2011-16) with the independent York Revolution and is the longest-tenured position player in franchise history.	In his eighth season as a member of the Pittsburgh organization, Ahrens returns to Altoona for a third season in 2019. In 2018, Ahrens was the trainer for the Western Division for the Eastern League All-Star Classic. He spent two years in Bradenton from 2015-16, where he was named Florida State League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2016. He spent each the last six seasons on the same staff as manager Michael Ryan. Ahrens received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Carroll University in 2011, and a master's degree in kinesiology from Fresno Pacific University in 2016.	Schlesinger returns to the Curve for his third season, after making stops at Jamestown, West Virginia and Bradenton within the Pittsburgh system. In 2018, Ahrens was the trainer for the Western Division for the Eastern League All-Star Classic. Prior to joining the Pirates, he served as the strength and conditioning graduate assistant at Duquesne University from 2012-2014. Schlesinger graduated from Toledo with a degree in exercise science in 2011 and completed his master's degree of science in sports leadership at Duquesne in 2014.
